Retail Clerks of Ogden Have Not Lost Heart in Spite of Opposition.

Special to The Tribune.
OGDEN, May 31.—Street speaking and a program of music by a double quartet this evening marked the renewal of the retail clerks' campaign for early closing. Although a number of stores have reached an agreement whereby they will remain open until 10 o'clock Saturday night, the officers of the association declare that the clerks have not lost the fight. They even declare that the association is nearer victory today than it was a year ago. The clerks' association today published a list of more than 1500 names who had signed the pledge cards and also a list of the firms which had signed the 7 and 8 o'clock closing agreement. It is stated by the association officers that local labor unions have started a movement to have all members trade at only the stores which close early.

FORMER SALT LAKE BOY DIES

Richard Lee Accidentally Shot While Hunting in the Brush Near Blackfoot.

Special to The Tribune.
IDAHO, May 31.—A very bad accident to the son of a former Salt Lake citizen occurred here yesterday. Richard Lee, son of Attorney W. A. Lee, formerly of the city, was shot while hunting in the brush near Blackfoot, Idaho, yesterday. The boy was found dead on the banks of the Blackfoot river, two miles southeast of this city. The boy had been missing from home for twenty-four hours, but the parents were not greatly alarmed, since it was thought he might be visiting friends in the country. Alvin Jordan, whose father has a ranch along the river, was going when he discovered the boy lying in the heavy brush. The sheriff and coroner E. T. Peck were at once notified and the body brought to the city. The verdict of the inquest was held.

When found there was a revolver in his hand, showing the bullet hole in the supposition that the boy was hunting through the heavy brush and that the gun was accidentally discharged. The bullet entered the head upon the right side, passing through the brain and crushing the skull. The verdict of the jury was that death was caused by accidental shooting by a gun in his own hand.
